Wednesday Evenings

6:30-7:30pm

Where: Royal Redeemer / Room 302

Foundations is a Pastor led Bible study that meets on Wednesday evenings, in-person and virtually by Zoom call, to walk together through God's Word. The Holy Spirit leads each of us on a journey to live out our faith in our unique context, but are there foundations that our faith is built on? As we dive into God's Word, this classroom style learning environment will help you discover new insights that will help you discover the foundations of our faith.

Royal Rascals

Starting Friday Sept. 16t

This is a Parent/Child class for 1 hour for children 18 month to 3 years old taught by one of our preschool teachers Stacey Wood. They will have age appropriate lessons where they sing songs, make crafts, build confidence, learn turn taking and develop fine and large motor skills. For more information go to our website under signups.

Organist/Piano Accompanist Needed

Friends, we are hoping to hire a skilled organist or piano player to accompany our 9:00am worship service as well as our choir during the ministry year. If you or someone you know would be interested, please reach out to pastorben@royalredeemer.org.
