

ROYAL REDEEMER FAMILY VALUES

ROYAL REDEEMER
AN LCMS CONGREGATION

The Kingdom of God is for everyone

- The cross is God's invitation to belonging for all people
- We desire a diverse congregation that reflects the diversity of the community around us in all respects.
- We actively work to break down barriers to belonging at RR.

Relational discipleship

- We seek to continue Jesus' work of growing God's kingdom by a daily pursuit of healthy, life-giving relationships with God, one another, and those around us.
- Sin breaks relationships, and leaves us longing for wholeness
- Grace heals relationships through the cross and invites us to belong forever in the Kingdom of God
- The culture of the congregation impacts the culture of our families and the community around us.
- At RR, we believe this happens best in Connect-Grow-Serve communities for children, teens and adults.
- We equip our members to recognize moments of opportunity in those around them and to reach out to care and invite in Jesus' name.

Compassionate Action

- We purposefully reach beyond our walls to engage with and care for others in need.
- Parable of the Good Samaritan: anyone who has need is my neighbor

Grounded in God's Word and sacraments, filled with prayer

- We look to these for guidance, grace, and power to live as children of the King.

Theological unity and differences in spirituality

- While united in our Lutheran faith, we welcome, encourage, and support differences in the way people connect with God and others, grow in faith, and serve God and one another.
- We strive for Lutheran substance in preaching and teaching and spiritual inclusiveness in worship and ministry style and strategy.
