(read the following passage aloud and listen for words or phrases that speak into your life now)

Colossians 3: 23-24 (NIV)

²³ Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, ²⁴ since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.

- Share any words or phrases that speak into your life today.
- How wide spread do you think “Whatever you do” means?
- How could “working for human masters” and not for God result in your life being out of balance?
- How could “working for God” result in your life being in balance?
- How easy/hard is it for you to do what Paul is telling us to do in this text?
- The sermon talked about Brother Lawrence and “The Practice of the Presence of God”, how did Brother Lawrence practice the presence of God? How might you do that?
- How does knowing that “It is the Lord Christ you are serving” affect what you do and how you do it?

- Serve others

- This week, be conscious of “it is the Lord Christ you are serving” as you serve others and see how that affects both you and the ones you are serving.

- End with Prayer and the Lord's Prayer
